

INITIATIVE FOUNDATION

The Healthy Communities Partnership program is designed to help communities build the capacity to plan for integrated community development. The sectors of the wheel below describe the areas of community life which need consideration as you answer questions and assemble your team.

